C D7
You were sitting at the coffee table
G7 C
where you're reading Kierkegaard
D7
Minutes later, you proceeded to say
G7 C
something that almost broke my heart

C D7 G7
You said, "Darling, I am tired of livin' my C routined life.

C D7
There's so much in the world that I'd like to soak
G7 C up with my eyes."

C D7
Well, baby I never did stop you from going out to G7 C explore

C D7
We can do it all together from the colds of the G7 C
poles to the tropics of Borneo

C D7 G7
Ba da da ba da ba

C D7 G7
Ba da da ba da ba ba

C D7 G7
Ba da da ba da ba

C D7 G7

C Em7 F
Let's pack our bags
G7

and lie on the easy stream

C Em7 F
feel the water on our backs
G7

where we can carry on dreamin'

C Em7 F
where we can finally G7

be where we'd like to be

C Em7 F
Darlin', just you and me

G7

Just you and me

C D7 G7 C

C D7 G7 C

C D7
So Darlin', what do you say? Does that sound like G7 C a plan to you?
C D7
We can build our own little world where no body
G7 C else can come through
C D7
We can live in huts made out of grass, we can
G7 C
greet father time as he walks pass
C D7
We can press feet into the dirt, a little mud no
G7 C
it wouldn't hurt

C D7 G7
